C. L. HERRING,
Manufacturer of
LIGHTNING RODS,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.
THE ANNUAL destruction of life and property by thunder storms has for years past given increased interest to the subject of Lightning Rods, and it is important that citizens should avail themselves of this means of protection for life and property.
The value and efficacy of the Lightning Rod does not consist wholly in conducting the Electric bolt from the building after it has leapt from the cloud, although this alone is sufficient to commend it to general use. Its chief value and efficacy consists in its power to prevent such explosions. It operates silently by tapping or drawing off the electric fluid from the advancing thunder cloud and thus by causing it to rise as it rolls past averting the danger. It is essential that the laws which regulate the action of the electric fluid should be duly considered, both in their construction and erection. The Rods I propose to furnish are constructed on true scientific principles. By means of screws connecting the parts together in a brass nut they are rendered as perfect as wire, and never by accident become insulated, as when they are united by hooks.
Their diameter is sufficient to conduct the greatest thunderbolt without fusion. The supports of the rod being furnished with glass insulators, all discharge of the electric fluid laterally into the house or anywhere except the earth is prevented.
It is important in order to reap the full benefit of the Lightning Rod, that they should be erected so as to distribute their points on the top of the building to be protected with due reference to the sphere of their attractive and protective power, which is generally estimated should be horizontally the distance of twice their hight.
Possessing, therefore, all the essential requisites of a truly scientific and safe conducting rod if erected so as to present a sufficient number of points, according to the extent of the building and is properly planted in the earth so as to be in no danger of becoming insulated by drought or dryness of the earth, I feel confident that my rods as well for their cheapness as their excellence, deserve and will receive general patronage.
☞ My Points are entirely different from any heretofore used and the purchaser can have them tested, whenever he chooses to do so. mar29-d6m

TEMPERANCE TALE.—To-day we commence the publication of a Temperance Tale, entitled "NORA, THE LOST AND REDEEMED," by Florilla. "Florilla" is the nomme de plume of a lady whose name is well known to the reading public. She feels a deep interest in the cause of Progress and Reform, and has embodied her thoughts on Temperance and kindred topics in a well wrought story of considerable length. Our readers will find their interest in it increase as the story progresses. It will run through some ten numbers of the Weekly. Those who want to get the whole story, had better subscribe now.

Woman's Sphere.

Under this caption the Waukesha Press walks into the Woman's Rights advocates with the greatest assurance. We give the following original dogmatism on this subject:

"We are of that class who are sufficiently conservative to believe, with St. Paul, that women should 'keep silence in meeting.'"

We suppose this is intended as a scripture quotation. Again, it says:

"The relative positions of man and woman are now, and have been from the outset, immutably fixed by the Creator—and any attempts to infringe upon his arrangements we deem simply absurd."

Well, what are those "relative positions" fixed by the Creator? That is the question. Would it not be as well to demonstrate that, as to stigmatize the friends of Woman's Advancement as her "assinine abettors"? But the Press says:

"It will require a vast amount of reasoning to convince us that woman was ever made to wear dress coats, pants, tight boots, drive fast horses, make stump speeches, take part in public deliberations, or any thing of that sort."

'Driving fast horses and public speaking'!—And this is the Editor's idea of the aims of those he calls "strong-minded women." But hear him out:

"The place and duty of woman is obvious. It may all be summed up in the single word Home. There her influence is direct and appropriate. Her time should be devoted to the care of her family, if she has any: if not, she may reasonably expect one, and in either event her duty is manifestly the same. This we apprehend to be a sphere of some extent; so much so, at least, that it is often neglected, if not entirely overlooked, by the ladies of the present day.

"We are aware that all this is very old fashioned—if you please, old fogyish. Of course it does not tally with the fast notions of such notoriety-seeking ninnies as Lucy Stone, Abby Kelly, Emily Snodgrass, and others, who Ishmaelize about the country haranguing public assemblies, sporting men's apparel, making themselves infinitely ridiculous and bringing disgrace upon their sex."

Is it not strange that those who oppose the plea for Woman's advancement and the enlargement of her opportunities for self-support, should always run off into a tirade like the above, and resort to ridicule instead of argument?

WAUKESHA COUNTY JUDGE.—A call appears in the Waukesha Independent Press, signed by Whigs and Democrats, calling on R. W. WRIGHT, Esq., to be a candidate for the office of County Judge. To which Mr. Wright replies that his name is at their service.

We understand, also, that a large number are in favor of VERNON TICHENOR, Esq., for that office. In that case, there will be three candidates running. Mr. FIELD, we believe to be incompetent for the office, but that is no objection to a candidate. In fact it rather increases his chances for an election.

CHANCERY.—Judge Hubbell decided yesterday, in the suit of C. S. Hurley vs. Wm. E. Cramer, that Mr. Hurley was a partner of Mr. Cramer, prima facie, according to the bill, and that Mr. Cramer had not denied the claim with sufficient explicitness. He required Mr. Cramer to give bail in the sum of $5,000 to answer in a jury trial; the matters to be left to the jury being, first, whether Mr. Hurley is, in fact, a partner of Mr. Cramer, and secondly, if he is, whether anything is due him, and how much.

FREE DEMOCRACY.—We are glad to see the Hartford Republican manfully oppose the change of the name of Free Democracy to that of Independent Democracy. That is the name adopted by the party in National Convention, and some good reason should be given for a change. We say with the Republican let us have no aliases.

☞ Nothing can suit the Madison Journal. We stated that Mrs. Van Bergen—one of the witnesses relied on to prove an important charge—left the State we knew not why, before the trial. On which the Journal flares up, and says:

A SLOW COACH.—On the 15th of June we mailed a letter at Madison, for Hartford, Ct., to a relative. After traveling and resting till August 23, it turns up at Milwaukee. Only two months and eight days in making the trip.

CHANGE.—Mr. Vilas has stepped out of the Racine Democrat and John A. Harrison, a capital printer, and a good hearted man, has taken his place.

☞ Power's statue of Eve is said by many to be superior to his "Greek Slave."

REFORM BASIS.—The Watertown Chronicle calls on Whigs, Democrats and Free Soilers to unite "and elect such men only as they may have good reasons for believing will use all honorable means in their power to retrench our State expenses, and thus lessen our taxes. We care not a fig what the politics of these members may be. We only ask that they may be right upon this point. 'LAW TAXES' will constitute, for a year or two, at least, a sufficiently broad and comprehensive platform for the friends of legislative reform. Just now, such a platform ought to present greater attractions than any ever framed at Baltimore, Buffalo or Pittsburgh. We see not why all our tax payers might not plant themselves upon such a platform, and fight with a hearty good will to secure the success of its great distinctive principle."

The Free Democracy are all right on this point. Not one of that party in the Legislature voted for robbing the State, though many Whigs did. We shall be glad, however, to see Whigs and Democrats uniting with us for Retrenchment and Reform.

OHIO.—A Mass Temperance Convention of Portage county nominated Free Soilers, Whigs and Democrats on a Maine Law ticket. There was a great turn out and much enthusiasm.

A call, very numerously signed, for a meeting of all opposed to Slavery and Intemperance, in Cuyahogo Co., is published in the Cleveland papers. The Maine Law question seems to carry everything before it. All Northern Ohio is stirred up by it. The Temperance men are proposing to vote for Samuel Lewis for Governor, neither of the other candidates being in favor of the Maine Law. This question will agitate politics more or less for ten years to come.

Hunker Tactics.

The following from the Racine Advocate shows what expedients the Hunkers are resorting to, to secure the nomination and election of Mr. Doolittle:

"THE HUNKER JUDICIAL CONVENTION.—We should like to ask those of the Hunkers who are interested in getting up this call for a Judicial Convention, what business they have to use the names of the County Committee of Racine County for this purpose.—We are authorised to say that a majority of this Committee have not only not been consulted with regard to the use of their names in this connection, but that they are entirely opposed to the design and objects of the Convention itself, they having more than once expressed themselves decidedly hostile to the nomination of a party candidate for Judges of every grade. In addition to the surreptitious use of their names as first made in the Hunker papers of Kenosha, and copied by the others in the district; the name of the Chairman of that Committee has been superceded by the name of another person who is not the Chairman, and had no right to have his name in that connection. One of the members of that Committee has been out of the county for some three weeks, and could not have been consulted, however anxious the wire pullers might have been for it. The others of the Committee say they are hostile to such a call, and have expressed themselves so over their own signature."

The capital of the company is $23,085,000, with a debt of only $10,446,449.

FOUND DEAD.—On Monday last a German named Maximilian Fricke, a resident of this city was found dead in a field about a mile from Waukesha village. No marks of violence were found on his person, and he had apparently been dead several week. It was thought that he died of apoplexy or of the heat.

☞ An Apothecaries' Convention is to be held at Boston this week, the object of which is to encourage young men who engage in this business to more thoroughly qualify themselves for their duties.

☞ The schooner Hagar bound for this port with a load of salt and merchandize, was reported to be discharging her cargo at Conneaut on the 19th inst., in consequence of having sprung a leak on the previous day.

SALE OF FT. MEIGS.—The property upon which old Fort Meigs stood, is to be sold at auction on the 30th inst. It is near Perrysburg, Ohio.

☞ One of the assistants at the Crystal Palace Exhibition has been arrested for pilfering articles, many of which were found on his person, and at his dwelling.

☞ The propeller Gen. Taylor which has been running on Lake Michigan has been chartered to run between Detroit and the Sault.

ARRIVED.—The propeller Milwaukee and the brig Robert Burns with cargoes from ports on this Lake, arrived at Buffalo on the 19th instant.

☞ Hiram P. Lee, was killed at Palmer Centre, by lightning, a week ago last Sunday, while standing in his own doorway.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGN.—We do not recollect in a sea board life, of having seen so beautiful a sight as met our eyes in looking upon the peaceful bosom of Lake Michigan on Sunday last. Some fifty vessels ranging of all sizes and names were in sight most of the day. They were moving slowly in all directions, some making to the north, some to the south, some beating homeward, and some outward bound; all freighted with precious life, and all seeking by honest enterprise the rewards of well directed labor.—Racine Advocate.

Correspondence of the Free Democrat.

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 18.

FRIEND BOOTH:—Your readers, some of them at least, may desire to know something about passing events in their "fatherland." This city, in many respects, is far ahead of New York. The streets are kept clean; even to-day, while the rain has fallen in torrents, as it also did yesterday, men with carts were passing along the streets gathering up all the filth and carrying it off. Where new buildings are erecting a strip of the side-walk, and, if necessary, a part of the street also, is fenced off, and inside of it all materials are kept, without endangering the lives or limbs of passers-by. No wonder this is such a healthy place—it is so clean and well regulated.

It is lucky for Boston that it is not in, nor governed by such a City Council as, Milwaukee; if it were either, its chief beauty, its most admired and admirable features would be annihilated. Its beautiful elevation, Capitol-Hill, would long ere this have been graded, graded, graded, (the grade changed by every new Council) until it would now be a level plain, if not a valley, and the Capitol—the State House itself—the ornament and glory of the City, would now be invisible. A hill right in the midst of the city, 120 to 130 feet above the main business streets, would set a vast number of picks, shovels, carts, horses and politicians at work, to see what a grand affair it would be to make work, taxes and votes. But I forbear.

Boston is looking to the West—to our railroads stretching away towards the Mississippi. During the business part of the day 147 trains arrive in, and depart from this city;—the neighing of the iron horse is constantly ringing out upon the troubled air. Your city, too, when all your railroads now in contemplation shall be finished, will resound with the same music. Then you can stand on Spring Street or Kilbourntown Hill (if they are not dug down to a level with the river), and look down upon the long trains coming in on six railroads, laden with the products of your farms, mines and manufactories—making the old settlers astonished that on the Indian trail, where, sixteen years ago, a dozen Indian ponies could carry the surplus products of your territory, now an iron road is built, on which comes thundering into your beautiful city the ponderous train, laden with the immense surplus of your fertile "prairies and openings."

For a number of days past the Musical Convention has been in session, and last evening we went to hear the performance. It was a grand affair—three hundred performers in the Musical Hall, lighted by 200 beautiful lights, filled with beauty and music—excuse me: like yourself I named the beauty first. No matter; it was a splendid affair, long to be remembered.

When you come to Boston, don't fail to stop at this most delightful place, the "Marlborough," where there is "no rum nor tobacco," and no mosquitoes nor bed-bugs, as in Gotham.

DARIUS.

NEW ENGLAND HOUSE,
Janesville, Aug. 22, 1853.

MR. EDITOR:—Having been several weeks from home, traveling in this and adjacent States, it is a real treat to sojourn a few days in this beautiful city, with which you and your readers are doubtless familiar, and to enjoy the excellent accommodations of mine host, JOHN KIMBALL, Esq., of the New England House. To give the expression the least offensive form, I will say that, having understood that at the principal hotels in this city, (at one in particular) there was a great lack of cleanliness, I have hitherto found none in this State so well calculated to make the weary traveler feel entirely "at home" and in every way comfortable, as the one from which I write.

Ordinarily I should be unwilling to make make this the theme of a newspaper paragraph. My apology for doing so at this time, is, to inform your readers that may have occasion to visit Janesville, that in this excellent house they will find what, in our State, is known as "The Maine Law Bowery."

MICHIGAN.

☞ A County People's Convention is to be held at Janesville, Aug. 29th, to nominate a candidate for County Judge.

Hunker convention for County Judge met on Saturday last and after a great deal of cutting off candidates, proceeded to balloting. After several ties between Messrs Neil and Pritchard, Moses S. Pritchard was declared duly nominated by a majority of one. The convention then adjourned. There is yet an election by the people before a judge is placed in his seat.—Janesville Free Press.

WM. H. BURLEIGH.—We heartily approve of obtaining the services of this distinguished champion of the Maine Liquor law to lecture through this state. He is one of the best speakers we have ever heard, and his heart is in the work. He is in every sense of the word, a practical reformer.—We hope he will come.—Janesville Free Press.

Man Shot at Belvidere.—We learn that on the 16th inst., one of the showmen attached to Barnum's Menagerie, named Palmer, shot a man named Biddle, at Belvidere.—Palmer was engaged in the Alligator part of the show, and using some force to keep Biddle, who was a spectator, out of the way, he was struck twice by the latter. Palmer then drew a revolver, discharged two barrels, and shot Biddle dead on the spot. These are all the particulars that have reached us.—Galena Advertiser.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—A gentleman in New Haven has caught in his garden since the 10th day of June, with twenty-four wide mouthed bottles partly filled with molasses and vinegar, over 3 bushels of flies, bugs millers, &c. The bottles were hung upon his garden fence. During the first seven days the amount of flies, &c., caught was forty two solid quarts.

It is stated that Col Benton's friends in Missouri are already preparing to bring him out for the Presidency in 1856, against all parties and all conventions.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARABIA.

Over 200 Lives Lost by Shipwrecks!

New York, Aug. 23.

The Cunard steamship Arabia, from Liverpool, arrived at 7 this morning. She reports having seen a large steamer ashore on Nantucket shoals, supposed to be the Pacific.—Our latest news from Nantucket is by the steamer which left there at 9 a. m. for New Bedford, and which makes no mention of it. The next news up to nine o'clock this a. m., will reach Boston late this p. m., when we doubtless shall have full particulars; in the meantime, two boats and lighters have been sent down to Nantucket to render assistance.

The Franklin was off Cowes on the night of the 10th. The steamship Great Britain, sailed for Australia, on the 11th, and bets are pending on her passage, and the clipper ship Sovereign of the Seas.

Nothing definite has transpired on the Turkish question, but the belief is that it has terminated peacefully. Definite news from St. Petersburg was expected to reach London on the 16th. The Morning Post asserts that the principalities will be evacuated the first week in September by Russia, and soon after the British and French fleets will leave the Turkish waters.

A great naval review at Portsmouth, by Queen Victoria, had taken place.

Nothing important from France. The wheat crops were mostly in, and were only about two-thirds of the usual crop.

Missionary King's affair at Greece was drawing to a satisfactory conclusion.

The overland mail was telegraphed. The steamship Monumental City was wrecked on her passage from Port Philip to Sidney, and 35 passengers perished. The Arab steamship, with the Bombay mail on board, foundered, and 179 Lascars were drowned.

The king of Ava was more peacefully disposed towards the British.

The Chinese Imperialists were preparing to take Amoy. The Insurgent forces were within 4 days march of Pekin. A telegraph says they had beaten back an Imperial fleet from before Nankin, and had concluded not to attack Canton till September.

London, Aug. 13.

Despatches from St. Petersburgh, dated 5th, have been received in Paris. They state that the Emperor has definitely accepted the proposition of the Four Powers.

A despatch from Trieste states that the Porte accepts without modification the Treaty drawn up at Vienna—an extraordinary Embassador was to leave Constantinople for St. Petersburgh with the Sultan's decision, as soon as the Russian troops are ordered to evacuate the principalities.

A letter from Constantinople, dated July 21st, says there is intense excitement there in consequence of the refusal of the Hospodars of Moldavia and Wallachia, to obey the summons to repair to Constantinople. The old Turkish party were so indignant that fears were entertained for the safety of the city.

NEW PRINTING MACHINE.—In turning over the leaves of the Report on Patents for the year 1852, we met with the following brief notice of a very interesting improvement in Printing Presses:

"The invention consists in the introduction of conical inking and impression cylinders. The form is screwed on a revolving disk, either vertical or horizontal in its revolution; the form passes under the inking rollers and under the printing cylinders to receive the impression, so that one impression is made at each revolution of the form. The conical impression cylinder receives the paper under a clamp hinged to the cylinder, and the clamp is returned at the proper moment to deliver the sheet."

The inventor of this simple but ingenious press is Mr. John G. Nicolay, of Illinois, quite a youth. Being a practical printer, but in his remote residence never having seen a machine press, he thought a great deal on the subject, and at length matured the invention, the originality of which obtained for it a patent. We saw him often here during the time his application was before the Patent Office, and were as much pleased with his modesty and intelligence as with the ingenuity of his invention, which appeared to us to furnish a press at once simple, efficient and cheap.—National Intelligencer.

Rev. Mr. E——, a gentleman of fervent piety and commendable modesty, made an afternoon call on a family which consisted of a bright and beautiful girl of five summers, and another of some nine or ten weeks. The stately divine was ushered into the parlor, where he found three ladies and the children. In such company he could do no less than to relax his dignity to the extent of saying a few words to the elder daughter. So he went on thus: "Well, Ellen, you've got a little sister! I think I shall take her home with me; I suppose you will interpose no objection?" No answer but a surly look me this proposition. "You don't want your little sister—you don't love her; so I think I shall take her;—I may, mayn't I, Ellen?" "Yes," said Ellen, with a scornful and incredulous look; "you may take her; but you don't think you can nuss her, do you?"

UGLY REMINISCENCE.—It is said that Mr. Everett is laboring to lay aside the "fogy" garb, and play Young America with reference to 1856. After some flights of fancy looking in this direction in his speech at the Plymouth Celebration the other day, Mr. Yerdon, of South Carolina, complimented him after this sort:

"You, too, illustrious Sir, have also been distinguished for your devotion to the South." (This in the free soil town of Plymouth!) "Well do I remember that you once rose in Congress and declared that for no purpose would you so readily take up arms as in order to suppress an insurrection of our slaves."

It is said that Mr. E. was about as particularly uneasy as when John Randolph dubbed him a "doughface."—Portland Inquirer.

☞ Next to Sancho's eulogy of Sleep, the subjoined, by Goethe, is the best I have ever read: "Sweet sleep! thou comest with good fortune, unbidden, unentreated. Thou loosest the knots of stern thought, and minglest together all images of joy and grief!—Unhindered, the circle of internal harmonies flow on, and, wrapped in a pleasing frenzy, we sink down and cease to be."—Touchstone

☞ Dr. Channing (of the United States) was one day paying toll, when he perceived a notice of gin, rum, tobacco, &c., on a board which bore a strong resemblance to a gravestone. "I am glad to see," said the doctor to the girl who received toll, "that you have been burying these things." "And if we had," said the girl, "I don't doubt you would have gone chief mourner."

A CASE.—Yesterday afternoon a woman named Caroline Kirby, who had been endeavoring for several days to extort money from H. Birchard, was taken charge of by the police, and waited on to the jail. A house of correction is the proper place for such a woman. She had no claim, legal or moral, on Mr. Birchard, and was probably put up to hound him by other persons, who think that because he is rich and would rather pay money than be annoyed, that he is a good subject for plucking.

On the same principle, we suppose, that a well known needy politician, a few days ago, wrote Mr. B. a letter—which we saw—asking him to send him a check for $100, claiming that he had been at that expense—some fourteen years ago—for his benefit, and threatening to injure him to that amount if he did not send him the money. We belive in everybody's paying his debts, but attempts at extortion ought never to prove successful.

A correspondent states that during the late low water in the Ohio a keel boat hand having been so imprudent as to dip a bucket of water out of the river, the captain was compelled to land a keg of nails.

APPOINTMENT OF A NEGRO TO OFFICE.—A North Carolina paper seriously asserts that a negro man has been appointed keeper of the Long Shoal Light House, in place of a Captain Pugh, Whig, removed.

Albany, Aug. 19.

The Court of Impeachment have voted 17 to 13 to retain the five articles relating to the canal lettings.

New York, August 19.

Bellard Hesser, mate on board the St. George, was assaulted this morning by the crew, and so badly hurt that he is not expected to live.

New Orleans papers to July 22d maintain that a collision had occurred there between parties of Americans and Mexicans in which the former were fired upon by the latter, and the District Attorney of El Passo killed.

The Common Council of Charleston, at a special meeting yesterday, passed a vote appropriating $2,000 for the New Orleans sufferers.

Cumberland, Aug. 50.

The cholera broke out in this place on Wednesday last—14 deaths have since occurred from it. It is now subsiding.

New York, Aug. 20.

Auburn, Aug. 20.

Wm. Wescott, arrested in Rochester a short time since for making bogus money, and indicted here this week, plead guilty yesterday. This morning Judge Hall sentenced him to pay a fine of one dollar, and to be imprisoned 7 years at Auburn.

New Orleans, 23d.

Number of interments to-day were 270, including 240 of yellow fever. Total of week 1150 of fever; deaths yesterday 290.

Boston, Aug. 23.

Cumberland, Aug. 23.

No more deaths by cholera up to last night. Physicians say that the disease is much milder and is abating.

Baltimore, Aug. 23.

The Board of Health of Mobile commenced reporting deaths by fever on the 17th—on that day there were four deaths.

New York, Aug. 23.

The Arabia, in her last trip out, made the passage in 9 days 17 hours.

Last evening the Crystal Palace was lit with gas, and the result was very grand. It will soon be thrown open in the evening.

Washington, 23d.

Fayette A. Ringgold has been appointed Consul at Hayti. J. R. Marigato, of Baltimore, has accepted the Secretaryship of Legation of Peru.

Land Warrants.—The stringency in the money market has brought forward Warrants, in excess of the demand, and we consequently quote them lower. Whether this decline be temporary or permanent, will depend upon the state of the money pressure.

HOME.

We are at home again, after a two weeks' trip to the East to see the "sights," "safe and sound"—having escaped the watch-stuffers, thimble-riggers, mock-auctioneers, pocket-book droppers, steamboat explosions, and all other adversaries and dangers, save the mosquitoes and a turn-over on the cars, which took place about five o'clock on Monday morning, when within five miles of Chicago, in consequence of the brake falling under the rear car, throwing it off instantly. This car was nearly full of passengers, but fortunately the train was under a moderate motion, and the place for the turn-over was particularly favorable—the ground being smooth prairie. The rest of the cars remained on the track "right side up," and this one, as it tipped over, became detached from the train. The car was thrown from ten to twelve feet off the track, turned completely on its side, and considerably stove in. A boy had his arm broken, a gentleman got his head considerably injured, and a lady was so severely bruised that she fainted. The rest of the passengers escaped with slight bruises, as good luck would have it. For our own part we got off with a jammed hand and slightly bruised legs, and as we crawled out from the broken and motionless car, we breathed a prayer of special gratefulness to Providence at being let off so favorably.

We feel comparatively well at present, and hope we shall continue to; though we were afflicted somewhat, while in New York, with that disagreeable disease sometimes called ennui. We don't apprehend, however, that any such disease will ever have the impudence to attack us in this city—we don't.

APOLOGETIC.—We don't know as H. REED has any watermelons, but the one sent to this office from his store, is pretty good evidence that he has had some worth the eating.

☞ The Journeymen Tailors of this city are to hold a meeting at Military Hall, next Friday evening. See notice.

☞ Don't forget, the Dioramic exhibition at Young's Hall this evening. It is no sham, or mere catch-penny affair, but is really a work of merit, and is well worth seeing. It is unlike any they exhibited heretofore.

☞ We must again call the attention of the Aldermen of the Fourth Ward to the nuisance unabated in the shape of stagnant water, between West Water and Second-sts., near Eldred's Lumber-Yard. The hot weather is upon us, and disease and death may be the result of much longer delay. We don't see any excuse for rich men in neglecting to fill their lots. The alley west of the lumber-yard should be filled at once.

MILWAUKEE ACADEMY.—We have received the first annual catalogue of the officers and students of this institution—located in this city—from which we learn that the total number of students who have attended the school during the past year is 288. The institution we believe to be in a flourishing condition, possessing good facilities for developing the youthful mind, and under the control of proper and competent teachers.

☞ The Fair and Cattle Show of the Milwaukee and Waukesha County Agricultural Society will be held at Waukesha on the 28th and 29th days of September.

Police Court.

George Sport was tried yesterday and fined $10 and costs for an assault and battery upon Anton Nirschel, on the night of the 19th inst., by which the latter had his shoulder dislocated.

A young woman swore out a complaint against a young man named Carl Diehurd, charging him with violating Sec. 6. of Chap. 139, of the R. S. The faithless lover was soon brought into Court, but as a hearing could not then be had, the parties concluded to settle the difficulty by being united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and the two were speedily made one. Of course the suit went down, and it is to be hoped that the happy couple will suit each other.

P. S.—Since the foregoing was in type we have learned that the gentleman above alluded to, took French leave of his lovely and youthful bride last night, carrying with him some eighteen dollars in money, belonging to the man with whom he boarded. Officers were on the alert this morning, on board the different boats that were to leave port, but not a single trace of the accomplished villain was to be discovered. He is a German, of comely appearance, and pretends to have recently come from Mexico. His fair dupe had known him but a short time before marriage.

MARINE.—The steamer Traveller arrived from Chicago between 3 and 4 o'clock, P. M. yesterday, with 116 passengers.

CHAPTER I.
NEW YEAR'S DAY.

The clock has chimed one solitary note. A new year has dawned. The last has gone, irrevocably, with all its sins, miseries, misspent hours, unhallowed joys, and bitter remorse. Father Time has completed his annual circuit, and 185- is ushered in, cold, bleak and dreary. Snow fills the valleys, and casts a white mantle over the mountains. The king of day in his golden chariot rises to welcome the new-born year, clears the atmosphere of its clouds, causing the crystal prisms on the tesselated branches of the trees to polarize his rays, so that nature seems a picture-gallery resplendent with the variegated tints of the rainbow. Soon, flying horses and merry sleigh-bells assist in the general christening, and a season of general rejoicing prevails.

Let us, reader, wend our way to New York city, for there the first day in the new year is celebrated as a gala-day, when old friendships are renewed and new ones are formed. The streets are full of life, yet but few female forms are seen, as it is customary for the ladies to remain at home to entertain the gentlemen, not only with "the feast of reason and the flow of soul," but with cake, fruits and wine. This is a harvest day for King Esculapius and his host of followers, who laugh in secret at the custom, and are not at all disposed to relinquish it.

It would be an interesting tour, gentle reader, could we take a mental sleigh-ride, go hither and yonder, enter the different dwellings, and ascertain the different social and moral influences resulting from this observance; but if we look at once at one mental daguerreotype, we shall be enabled to get some clue to this hoary and time-honored custom.

We will select from the busy crowd two individuals for observation, with whom we shall have many after conferences.

One of these gentlemen, Mr. Amy, was a strong, athletic man, with a full chest, of a somewhat robust habit, a sanguine temperament, and had a strong, steady gait. His life and enjoyments had been mostly in the open air, and, of course, his digestive, respiratory and circulatory systems were in a good condition.

The other, Charles Wentworth, is a young lawyer, scarcely out of his teens. His lofty and expansive brow bears the impress of intellectuality. He has a fine, thin skin, a slightly attenuated frame, narrow chest, and somewhat of a dyspeptic countenance. The fires of genius flash beneath his sparkling eye; the seeds of ambition have taken root in his soul; he has already become a successful pleader at the bar, and his eloquence has been enlisted in the cause of innocence traduced and of purity defamed. He has brought joy again to the humble cottager's fireside, has saved the widow's mite from the ruthless miser, and he bids fair to have Fame wreath her chaplets around his brow, "to be one of those few immortal names that were not born to die," and to be enshrined in the memories of the good and great on earth.

These two gentlemen ring at the door of an elegant mansion in —— street, where the wealthy Mr. Canding resides in all the grandeur of a nabob, and are at once made welcome to the hospitalities of the festal day.

Miss Canding was a gifted young lady, in "common parlance," a graduate from elite society, with the usual paraphernalia and attendant accomplishments. She was beautiful in feature, majestic in form, and with Carthaginian Dido, might well have said, "Incedo reginam"—"I walk a queen." She was attired in the most approved Parisian style, and had but recently "finished her education" at a fashionable boarding-school. Being an only child, she "came out" sooner than the young ladies of her age generally do, and from a pair of sparkling orbs shot many barbed arrows, at a retinue of valiant knights who would have gone on a pilgrimage to Mecca to have secured one glance expressly for themselves alone.

After the usual salutations were passed, the weather and other common topics of conversation exhausted, a decided opinion being rendered that it had snowed tremendously the preceding day, but was exceedingly favorable on that one, the young lady invited Mr. Amy to offer incense with her to "the rosy god."

Mr. Amy puts the goblet to his lips, and as he sips the siren draught, says, "It is rendered doubly acceptable from thy fair hand, my sweet friend; none but a heathen could be insensible to thy wishes." And he added many adulations and flattering words that gentlemen know so well how to pour into the ears of maidens, and which the poor silly creatures, too oft in the unsuspiciousness of their natures, take to be the echo of the heart's sentiment; but they find, alas! that like spiritual essences they are but shadows, and yet not like them, for we believe that spiritual shadows are the embodiments of realities, while in this case these flattering words are transient as gaseous scintillations, and are forgotten almost before they are uttered. When will men realize that they must appeal more to the intellectual nature of woman, if they wish to court her favor, and less to the sensual and animal? Not till woman rises in her might and power, develops her intellectual nature, and evinces by her conversation that she has depth and comprehensiveness of mind. We sometimes fear that this will never be, till the trump of the archangel shall sound and this mortal shall put on immortality. Let us hope for a speedier fulfilment of our soul's desires and undying yearnings for the redemption of our sex from the vanities and frivolities of life.

But to our Daguerreotype. As in every picture dark and light shades relieve each other, so may our wanderings be considered.

The lovely Miss Canding then fascinatingly approached Mr. Wentworth, who had been an attentive observer of the scene as it transpired. As yet he had not been thoroughly initiated into the Elusian mysteries of fashionable city life, for this was his first new year's day spent in Gotham. Not more deadly is the basilisk glance of a serpent, as it opens its jaws to entrap the bird, which it allures by its magnetic power, than was the bewitching grace and winning smile of this fair tempter.

What a blooming paradise Earth would be if woman only exercised that almost omnipotent power, which every one concedes to her, in the cause of virtue and truth? "Mr. Wentworth," said she, in that soft, low and gentle voice which thrills on the soul's deepest chords, "you will also drink with me some of our sparkling nectar. Bacchus had his votaries in olden times, and we must not forsake his service. His lethean streams are a balm to soothe every wo, to beguile every care, to remove the sting from every disappointment, to make the sorrowing heart lose itself in unnumbered joys. We should pay some tribute to the vine-clad hills of Italia's sunny climes, from which it is our custom to procure our wines."

Oceans of gold would this young man have given, if he could have had a magician's power, as in fairy days of old—if he could have vanished from her presence, as Virgil represents Turnus, enveloped in mists, obscured from light, to have done, when he fled from the pursuing and conquering Æneas. The "still, small voice" said, "Look not upon the wine, when it sparkleth in the cup, for it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an an adder." Visions of his happy childhood's home, his mother's warning voice, his gray-haired sire on the verge of another world, the members of the peaceful cottage, all the dreams of his youth, the memories of his riper years, all were remembered—just as it is said, the scenes of a whole life will pass before the mental camera obscura of a drowning man.

"Drink, quaff to the lady fair," cried his companion. "You will not, surely, refuse a simple glass of wine, when proffered by one of earth's loveliest daughters?" Then came pride, gallantry, every emotion of shame, to induce that young man to forget his Maker, to lay aside his manliness, to bow to the creature, to take his first glass of intoxicating drink.

"Don't you know," said Mr. Amy, "that Mr. Beal has wine on special occasions; so you need not be fearful that he will dislike it. We hope that, since you have resolved to settle in our city, you will renounce your old-fashioned teetotal"—to which word he gave a peculiar nasal twang—"notions belonging to the country. Remember that among the Romans we must conform to their customs." Then turning to the young lady, Mr. Amy said, "Would you believe it, Miss Canding, Mr. Wentworth was a regular recluse, an anchorite, a Cœlebs, all the while we were in college, and I could not persuade him to taste even our wine. I hope you will convince him of the folly of such ideas, and let him feel that ignorance is not bliss in this respect."

We should

> "Deal gently with the erring;
> We do not know the power
> With which the dark temptation comes,
> In some unguarded hour."

How true it is, that those who "think they stand securely, should take heed lest they fall."—There are moments when though the spirit is willing to struggle and wrestle with antagonisms, opposition, difficulties and temptations, yet the flesh is weak, and a person will sacrifice the reputation that covers his brow, which has taken years to accumulate, like the ivy on a church, to the pleasures and gratifications of the present moment. Though the person may feel that he is invulnerable, yet some tendo-Achilles will be pierced, and the virus will rankle in the whole system. The plague spot will certainly develop itself till every vestige of the former being will be lost. A small acorn drops into the soil, a tiny twig appears, little branches extend their limbs, till the lofty and umbrageous oak rears its majestic crest, the growth and development of a century's rain and sunshine. The woodman slings his ax on his shoulder, goes into the forest, and, with comparatively a few blows, levels ruthlessly, in a few moments, this work of years. He who has watched this growth, from his soul, sometimes mentally exclaims,—"Woodman spare that tree." Though every leaf clusters with ten thousand associations, tho' every swelling bud is vocal with reminiscences of childhood and youth, yet it is only matter, and not a particle of it is lost, but assumes new forms, new creations. It may be in the ascending smoke to wreath the snow cloud, or the timber to encounter the rage of Neptune on the briny deep. But when matter, into which the spirit has been fettered, which has been the shrine of soaring genius, falls by the ax of some brother or sister in the clay,

> 'Earth feels the fall, and sighing,
> Gives a wail of wo that all is lost.'

Charles Wentworth had not the manly and moral courage, the stamina of character, to confess to this lady that he was afraid to do wrong. He was like the potter's clay, moulded to the whims of his associates. He took the glass and drank. He made numerous calls during the day, and by night his brain was on fire. So highly wrought was his nervous system, that it could not endure the extra draughts made upon it.—At night he went to his bed with an aching and delirious brain. Did the sad experience of this day suffice to warn him against yielding to the Tempter? How is it usually? In the history of the progress of every crime or misstep, after the first barrier has been overcome, the downward tendencies may be gradual, but they are usually successive and double in ratio as they proceed, till the individual is lost, irretrievably lost, both to himself and society. Once pass the Rubicon and it is less difficult to yield to the demon within, whose desires, like the grim monster, are ever insatiable. It is "the first step that costs," the succeeding one on a flowery bed of ease till destruction is inevitable.

SNAKE STORY.—The Dowagiac Times says a monster of Serpent kind has repeatedly been seen in Cook's Lake, near Dowagiac. Different persons who have seen the creature estimate his length differently, ranging from 40 feet, up to 125.

Speaking of Slavery, reminds us of a circular received from Baltimore by Constable Smith, yesterday, upon which Smith had the satisfaction of paying five cents postage. It offers $100 for the apprehension of a fugitive slave, and is directed to "any Constable in Elmira," the senders of it, no doubt, thinking that the people of Elmira elect Constables who can, at the bidding of slave-dealers, be converted into blood-hounds. In this, we are pleased to say, they are greatly mistaken. Mr. Smith will respond to the precious circular by transmitting to the sender, postage unpaid, a large number of anti-slavery documents, such as the speeches of Fred. Douglass and Gerrit Smith. Good idea, that.—Elmira Rep.

To the Citizens of Milwaukee!

THE CITIZENS of Milwaukee are cautioned against purchasing LIGHTNING RODS from transient pedlars who are now flooding this city—making false representations in order to effect sales and giving G. W. Mygatt as reference, which was done without his knowledge or consent, and also saying that they are employed by me, and other representations to that effect. I employ no person, either in making sales or putting up rods, and those wishing for a GENUINE article, can procure them of me or G. W. MYGATT, Architect, 227 East Water-st. Professor Alex. C. Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound, for beautifying, improving and preserving the hair, curing cuts, bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism, and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement; but as the thousands who purchase, use, and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons.

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 940,000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100,000.

This plain, unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than anything its inventor could say. If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy, for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases &c.—it would not, of course, be so universally in demand. The wealthy portion of the public would buy it any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.

Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents,) at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot, 137 Broadway, and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c.

HEALTH FOR THE STATES!!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!

Extraordinary Cure of loss of Health, Disordered Stomach, Indigestion and Determination of Blood to the Head.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Loyd, of Erw-wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR.—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by a loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
June 6th, 1852. (Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

Miraculous Cure of Dropsy.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.

(Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

Infallible Cure of a Stomach Complaint with Indigestion and Violent Head-Aches.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-Aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & gravel
Bilious Complaints	Erysipelas	Liver Complaints	Secondary symptoms
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
Bowel complaints	Fevers of all kinds	Piles	Tumors
Colics	Fits	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Constipation of the Bowels	Gout	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Consumption	Head-ache	Scrofula or King's Evil	Worms of all kinds
	Indigestion
	Debility

Weakness from whatever cause, &c., &c.

Sold at the establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and by all Venders in Medicines throughout the United States, in Boxes at 37½ cts., 87 cts. and $1.50 cts. each. Wholesale by the principal Drug houses in the Union; and by Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS, New York.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box. je15-d1yeow

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

WELL, the BARNUM HUMBUG has been exhibited, and we are all satisfied with it, and we will have to be satisfied with whatever is presented before us; for what else is there in this cold, miserable world, but Humbugs? Lawyers are Humbugs, Doctors are Humbugs, Bankers are Humbugs, Merchants are Humbugs, Auctioneers would try to be Humbugs, and in fact every thing is a Humbug, with two exceptions, viz: Handsome Ladies and a group of small Children, are the only realities we have in this world. Now, I have no fault to find, nor do I care what any one says, for there is no friend so near and dear to you as yourself, and all you should wish of that friend is to do right. Now, I again call your attention to this STOCK OF DRY GOODS, amounting to about Ten Thousand Dollars, which I now offer to any one on 6, 12, or 18 months without any interest, at what they cost.—Real Estate security will be taken. To any one who wants to go into the Dry Goods Trade, here is an opportunity that seldom offers.

LEARNING THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.

WITH A PRONOUNCIATION

arranged according to J. C. Oehlschlager's recently pub'd

Pronouncing German Dictionary.

This little work which met a favorable reception in Europe is just republished in this country. It is suited to every capacity, and cannot fail to facilitate the labors of the student, who is desirous of learning to read and speak the German language in the shortest time possible. German literature occupies a high position. Germans are pouring into this State by thousands every year; their language, therefore, is becoming every day of more importance to the people of Wisconsin. We therefore heartily recommend these elementary works to all those who desire to study this fine language. [sep23] C. OTT, Agent.

SCHOOL LIBRARIES—700 volumes of the best and choicest kinds this day received, which, together with those before on hand and constantly arriving, make the selection from my stock the most desirable of any in the State. TO MILWAUKEE BUSINESS MEN AND ADVERTISERS.

THE "OSHKOSH DEMOCRAT," presents to business men a better medium of advertising, than any other country paper in the State. The weekly edition is 1000—41 quires—larger than that of any other in the State, and twice as large as more than half the others. It is sent regularly to every village and post office on Fox and Wolf rivers, and Lake Winnebago, from Green Bay to Fort Winnebago, and from Fond du Lac to Lake Shauno, and Stephens' Point on the Wisconsin, and circulates extensively in Fond du Lac, Dodge, Columbia, Marquette, Portage Waushara, Waupacca, Outagamie, Brown and Calumet counties; and to every precinct in its own (Winnebago) county.

What is said here of its circulation and comparative merits, as an advertising medium, is susceptible of positive demonstration to all who may desire it.

Wholesale Drug Ware House.

S. JOHNSON JR.,

NO. 151, EAST WATER ST., MILWAUKEE, WIS

THE SUBSCRIBER has now on hand, and is constantly receiving his supplies, selected by himself, from the stocks of the largest Importing, Manufacturing and Commission Houses in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and the Southern Market. His arrangements are so perfected for purchasing, as to defy competition; and it will at all times give him pleasure to exhibit the quality and variety of his stock, and by giving his prices, convince dealers of the truth of the assertion.

The Wholesale Department of his Establishment has been very much enlarged the present season, to enable him the better to attend the increasing demand in this branch of his business.

City and Country Customers will find at all seasons of the year, at this establishment, a more general assortment of goods than can be found at any similar establishment in the West. S. JOHNSON, JR., would particularly call attention to a few of the leading articles of his trade:

Lamp Oils, Paints, Oils and Dye Stuffs, constantly on hand in large quantities, and which will be sold to dealers at a MERE commission above cost

Mechanics, Inventors & Manufacturers.

$450. IN SPLENDID PRIZES. $450.

VOLUME IX of the Scientific American commences on the 17th of September. It is chiefly devoted to the advancement of the interests of Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers, and Farmers, by the diffusion of useful knowledge upon these important branches. It is edited by men practically skilled in the arts and sciences, and is widely regarded as a sound and able journal. Nearly all the Valuable Patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are Illustrated with Engravings, and the Claims of all the Patents are published in its columns; thus making the paper a perfect Scientific and Mechanical Encyclopedia for future as well as present reference. The Scientific American is very extensively circulated—its circulation in the last Volume exceeding 18,000 copies per week. It is in form for binding; each volume contains Several Hundred Engravings and over Four Hundred Pages of Reading Matter, with an Index. The practical receipts alone are worth to any family much more than the subscription price.

The Publishers offer the following valuable prizes for the largest list of subscribers sent in by the 1st of January next:—$100 will be given for the largest list; $75 for the second; $50 for the third; $45 for the 4th; $40 for the 5th; $35 for the 6th; $30 for the 7th; $25 for the 8th; $20 for the 9th; $15 for the 10th; $10 for the 11th; and $5 for the 12th. The cash will be paid to the order of the successful competitor, immediately after January 1st, 1854.

TERMS:—One copy one year, $2; one copy six months, $1; five copies six months, $4; ten copies six months, $8; ten copies 12 months, $15; fifteen copies 12 months, $22; twenty copies 12 months, $28 in advance.

Southern and Western money taken for subscriptions.

FARM FOR SALE.

A FARM containing 160 acres, located in Racine county, 10 miles from Racine and 18 from Milwaukee. It contains 30 acres woodland, 80 of high land and the balance Flats and Meadows, the latter of which produces from 80 to 100 tons of Hay. 44 acres are under cultivation. The fences are good.—On two sides of the Farm run Roads, one of which is a Mail Road, running from Racine to Waterford, and will probably be planked, as it is planked to within a few miles of the Farm. There are 150 fruit trees of different kinds, some of which are now in bearing. A good, substantial frame house, well finished, a superior well, and near the house a never failing, living Spring with soft water, and Churches, Schools and Stores, at a convenient distance. For particulars inquire of Mr. P. L. Mosein, Milwaukee, Mr. John S. Bangs, Racine, and P. Lutken, Thompsonville. jy5dactf
